Isatu B. Conteh
6200 Gallery Street, Bowie MD 20720
iconteh21@yahoo.com
(240) 425-7625

Summary: Merchandiser with a B.S. in Design and Merchandising. Skilled at both planning websites using UX design, specifically information architecture tools and turning them into working prototypes using front-end programming skills.

Education:
-B.S in Design and Merchandising, Drexel University 2011
-User Experience Bootcamp, General Assembly 2014
-XHTML/CSS Online Class, Prince George's Community College 2012

Skills:

-HTML5/CSS3	-Javascript	-Adobe Illustrator	-JQuery
-Adobe Photoshop	-Adobe InDesign	-Microsoft Word	-Microsoft Excel
-Axure	-Google Sketchup

Experience:

Code for Crittenton- participated in a competition to build a website for a project associated with the Crittenton Services of the Greater Washington D.C area. Final design received a 100% score for design and 90% score for functionality

Code for D.C. - contributed to the creation of workable websites and web applications related to civic minded activities using coding and design skills

OnTap Magazine- Designed layouts for multiple pages of the August edition of the magazine using mainly Adobe InDesign

Women Who Code D.C. , Girl Dev It D.C and Baltimore, Ladies Who Code and Learn Ruby D.C.- participated in multiple hack nights and study groups culminating in several different sample projects for portfolio

Related Work History:

RMSI(Retail Management Solutions Inc.)- Project Merchandiser, March 2014- present
Cut in new products, and put up new displays with the help of digital planograms, documented work using digital camera and submitted information using company computer system

Crossmark- Data Collections Associate, August 2012- present
Took surveys, collected inventory, was put in charge of maintaining certain product displays, and occasionally participated in store resets with the help of a computer device which is regularly synced with the company's computer system

Drexel University Monell Office- Office worker, September 2010-April 2011
Along with regular administrative duties, edited documents using imaging software and put together packages using Adobe Acrobat.